

fcc-i would like to express the creative benefits of listening to xm radio- i love the music programming and the variety available only on satellite radio- i have no idea why the fcc would consider editing a service i subscribe to- i have full knowledge of the range of programming available to satellite listeners and have complete freedom to cancel this service if i ever so desired-

thank you,
alison sadler